DEPUTY CLERK

JOSEPH BOWLER,
Plaintiff,

v.

GENE JOHNSON, et al.,
Defendants.

) Civil Action No. 7:09-cv-00449

)

) MEMORANDUM OPINION
)

) By: Hon. James C. Turk
) Senior United States District Judge

Plaintiff Joseph Bowler, a Virginia inmate proceeding pro se, filed a civil rights complaint, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 with jurisdiction vested in 28 U.S.C. § 1343. Plaintiff did not submit payment for the $350 filing fee with his complaint. See 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). Plaintiff had at least three non-habeas civil complaints or appeals previously dismissed as frivolous or for failing to state a claim upon which relief may be granted. See Bowler v. Braxton, 88 Fed. Appx. 612, 612 (4th Cir. 2004) (finding Bowler a “three-striker” and advising him he must pay the filing fee when filing a complaint absent a showing of imminent danger of serious physical harm).

In accordance with the three-strikes provision of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals previously advised plaintiff that he needed to submit the $350.00 filing fee or establish an imminent threat of serious physical harm to proceed with a civil suit. Id. After reviewing plaintiff's submissions in this civil action, it is clear that plaintiff does not allege any facts indicating that he is currently under any imminent threat of any serious physical injury within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Based on the foregoing and the complaint, the court finds that plaintiff has failed to demonstrate any imminent danger of serious physical harm in the complaint and plaintiff has not paid the $350.00 filing fee despite being previously advised of having three strikes. See 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). Accordingly, the court dismisses the complaint without prejudice for failure to pay the filing fee at the time of filing the complaint.

The Clerk is directed to send copies of this memorandum opinion and the accompanying order to the plaintiff.
